I Am A Song Through Winter And Spring

St. Mary's College Library

I am a Song

I am a song, a song to be sung
a song to hold you through the years, a song for the young
a song of the morning and a song of night, a song that tell of the wrongs that are done and a song of right
I'm a song of the future and the ancient past
And sometimes for just a moment – of the times to love
My words can bring you gladness or a touch of pain

I'll help you forget or remember –
Remember again and again
I am a song through Winter and Spring
and if you need a comfort when your world goes wrong you'll find consolation and maybe some hope in the warmth of a song
And I'm that song
And I'll be sung –
I am a song

CORNEILLE LITTLE
'76/LHG

Involvement in the dance groups, as in other aspects of St. Mary's life, is essential to the liberal education. By being a member of Caperettes and the Gillie Callum dancers I have learned both the importance of cooperation and responsibility. For me, dance performance is an exciting part of St. Mary's life, but at the same time it fulfills another purpose. Participation makes one become aware of her own talents, capabilities, and responsibilities — both to herself and to others. Acknowledgement and awareness of these qualities presents the individual with meaning and purpose. Whether it be practice for tennis or swim team, play rehearsals, or long hours of dance — the strive for perfection builds character. Not only is a sense of patience and love learned through working towards a common goal, but the individual is rewarded by the fulfillment she gains from the involvement with others, And, after all, involvement is what St. Mary's is all about.

School Hymn

We build our School on Thee, O Lord;
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heaven above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure;
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master Teacher, Friend;
We change; but Lord, we bear Thy Name,
To journey with it to the end. AMEN

Where are you going?
Where are you going?
Can you take me with you?
For my hand is cold and needs warmth.
Where are you going?

Far beyond where the horizon lies, where the horizon lies –
And the land sinks into mellow blueness,
Oh please take me with you.

Let me skip the road with you,
I can dare myself, I can dare myself –
I'll put a pebble in my shoe,
And watch me walk, watch me walk –
I can walk, I can walk –

I shall call the pebble dare,
I shall call the pebble dare –
And together we will talk about walking.
They shall be carried.
And when we both have had enough,
I will take him from my shoe singing
Meet your new road.
And I'll take your hand.
Finally glad, finally glad –
That you are here, that you are here –
By my side,
By my side,
By my side . . .
That you are here by my side.

Theme from "Mahagony"

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to?
Do you know?

Do you get what you're hoping for
When you look behind you there's no open door?
What are you hoping for?
Do you know?

Once we were standing still in time
Chasing the fantasies that filled our minds.
And you know how I loved you, but my spirit was free,
Laughing at the questions that you once asked of me.

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to?
Do you know?

Now looking back on all we planned,
We let so many dreams slip through our hands.
Why must we wait so long before we see How sad the answers to those questions can be?

Do you you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Do you know?

These Days

I used to think of myself
as a soldier
Holding my own against impossible odds Badly out numbered and caught in a crossfire of devils and gods.
All I ever wanted to see was within my eyes to see.
Oh, but these days
Are just like you and me
These days
Are just like you and me.

You turned out to be something
I could believe in
All you ever looked for in me was within your sights to see
Then you took me from my life (my riddle)
and made the answer known.
I used to live like there was no tomorrow
Taking my trials
a day at a time
Laughing at sorrow
and crying for justice.
Such innocent crimes
Oh, but, these days
Are just like you and me.

You turned out to be something I could believe in you taught me what it is to be free
you taught me to be more like what you first saw in me.

Corner of The Sky

Everything has its season
Everything has its time
Show me a reason and I'll soon show you a rhyme
Cats fit on the windowsill
Children fit in the snow
Why do I feel I don't fit in anywhere
  I go?

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run free
Got to find my corner of the sky.
Every man has his daydreams
Every man has his goal
People like the way dreams have of sticking to the soul
Thunderclouds have their lightning
Nightingales have their song
And don't you see I want my life to be something more than long?

So many men seem destined
To settle for something small
But I won't rest until I know I have it all
So don't ask where I'm going
But listen where I've gone
And far away you'll hear me singing softly to the dawn:

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run free
Got to find my corner of the sky.

TO THE MORNING

Watching the sun
Watching it come
Watching it come up over the rooftops

Cloudy and warm
Maybe a storm
You can never quite tell
From the morning.

And its going to be a day
There is really no way to say no
To the morning.
Yes its going to be a day
There is really nothing left to say but Come on morning.

Waiting for mail
Maybe a tale
From an old friend
Or even a lover.

Sometimes there's none
But we have fun
Thinking of all who might Have written.

And maybe there are seasons
And maybe they change
And maybe to love is not so strange.

The sounds of the day
They hurry away
Now they are gone untill tomorrow.

When day will break
And you will wake
And you will rake your hands
Across your eyes
And realize

That its going to be a day
There is really no way to say no
To the morning . . .
So come on morning.

And maybe there are seasons
And maybe they change
And maybe to love is not so strange.

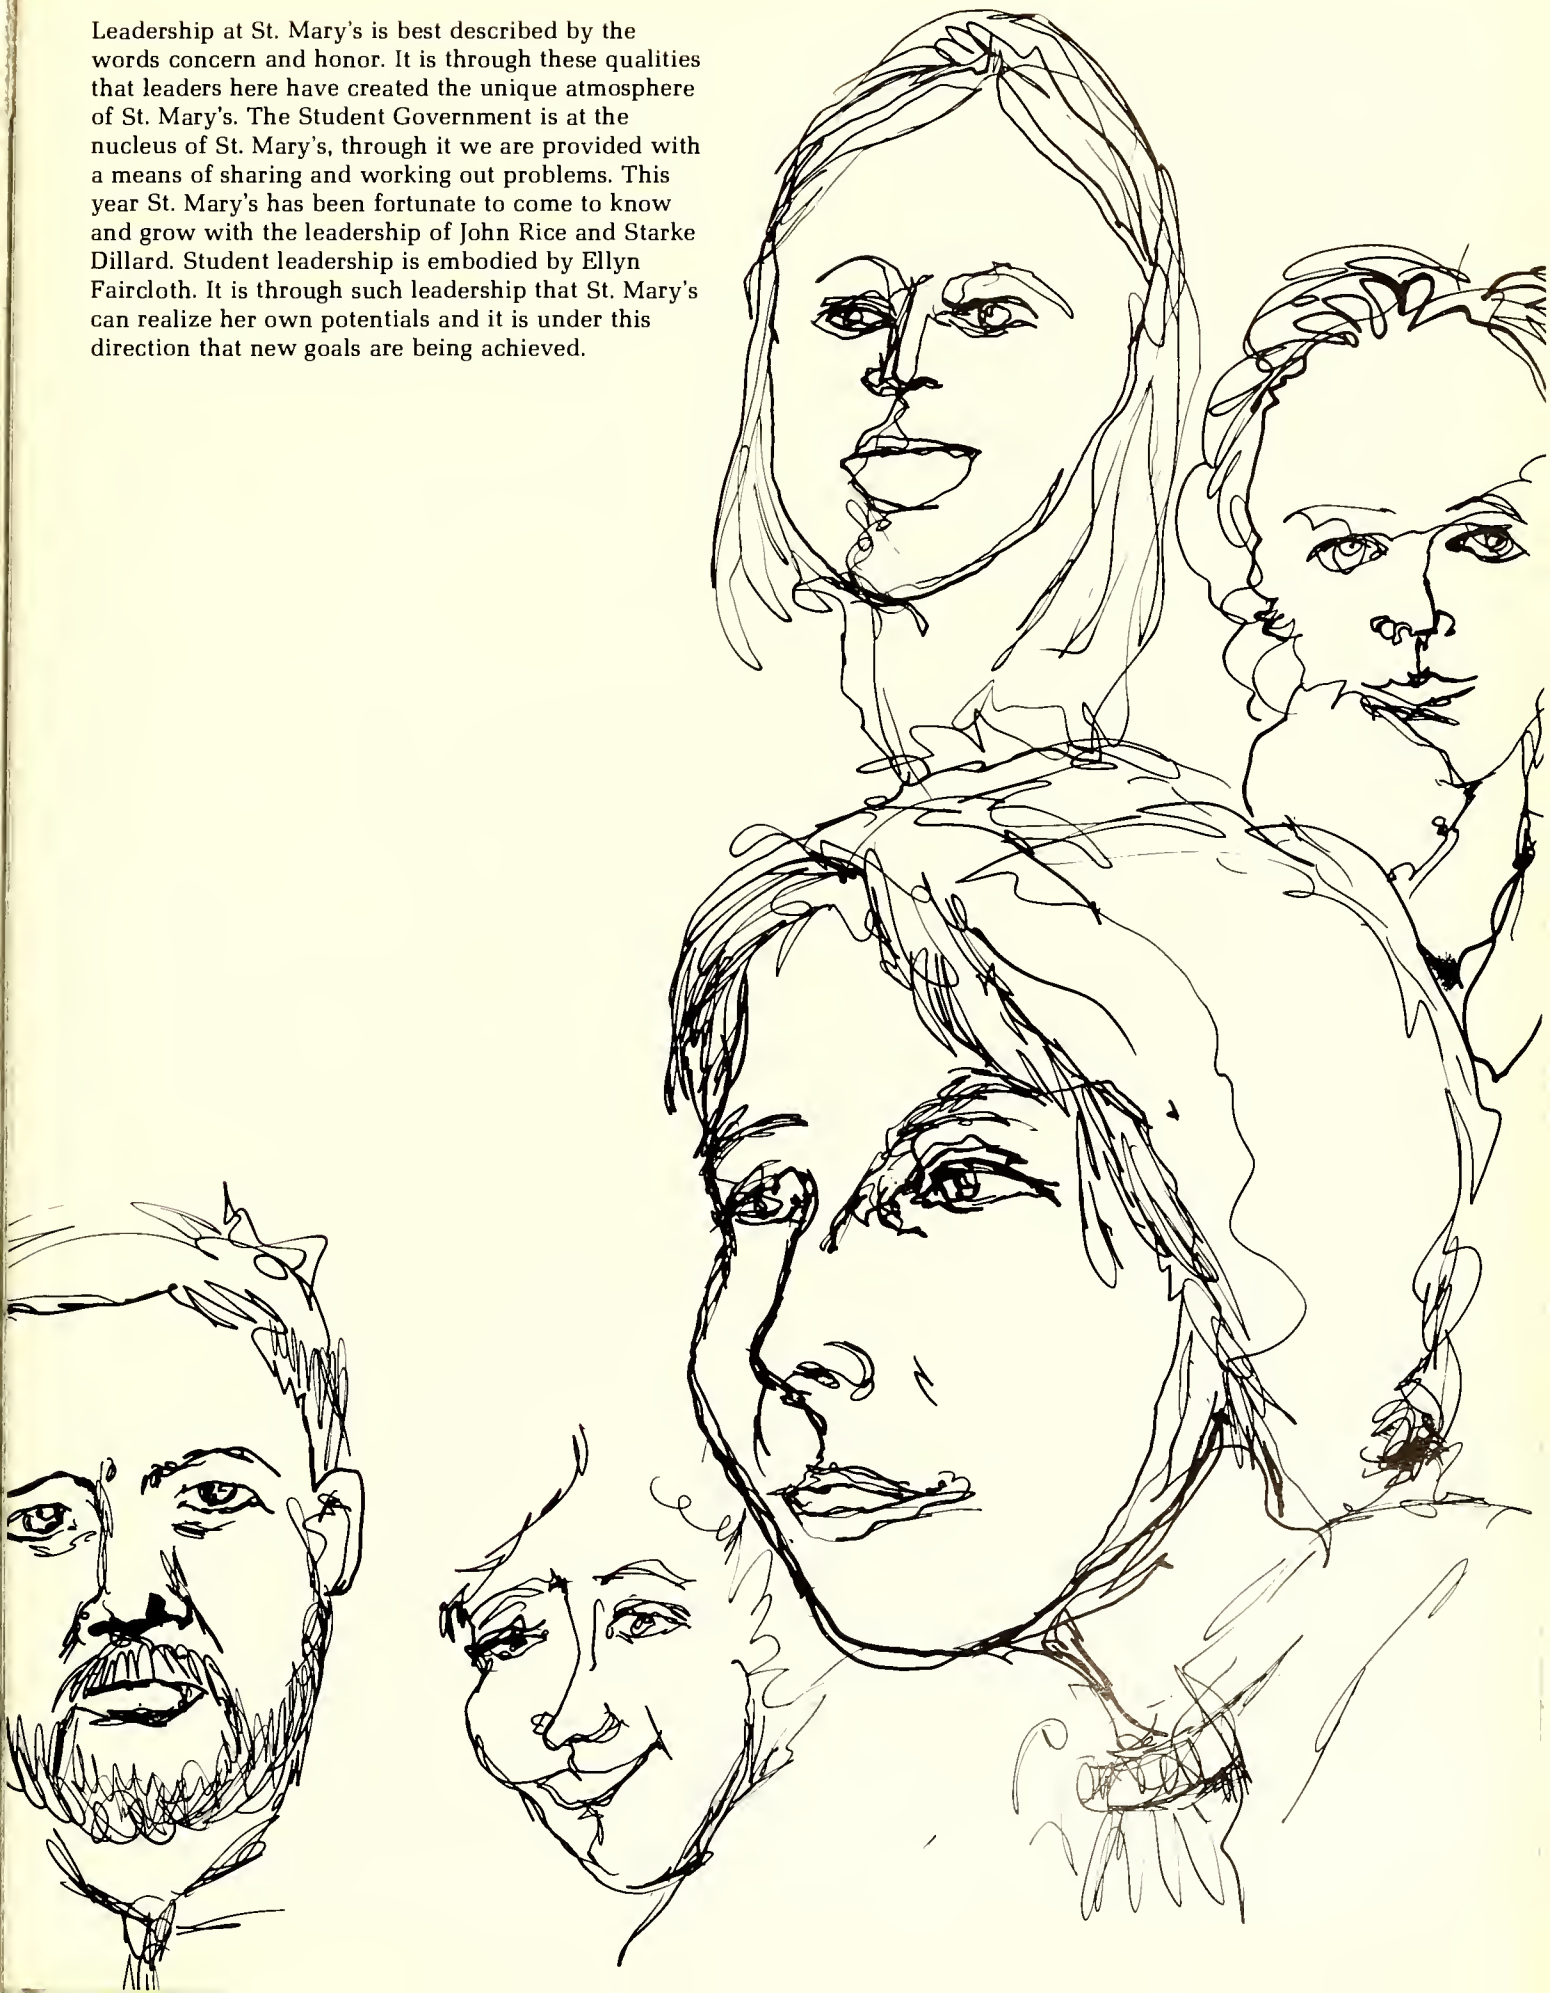
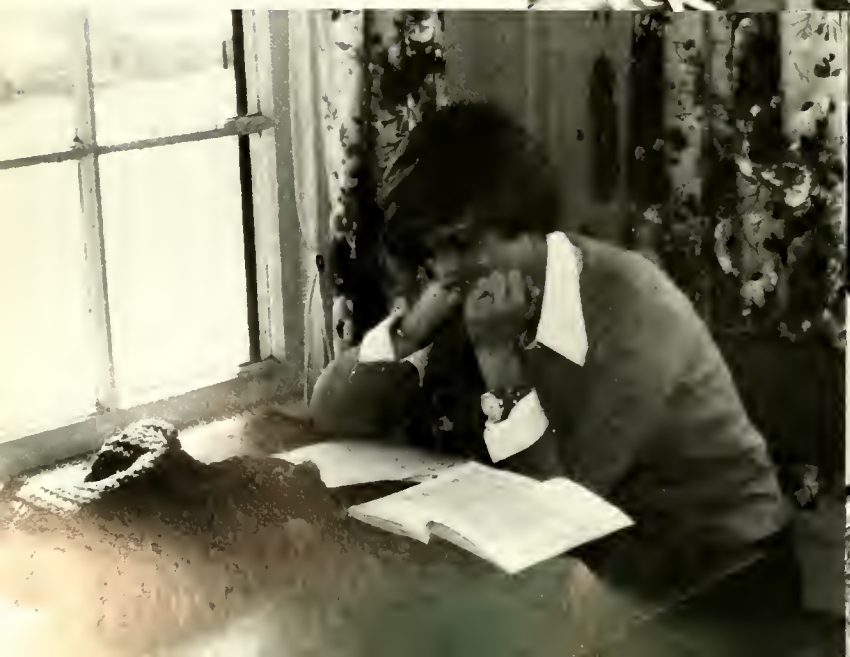
Leadership at St. Mary's is best described by the words concern and honor. It is through these qualities that leaders here have created the unique atmosphere of St. Mary's. The Student Government is at the nucleus of St. Mary's, through it we are provided with a means of sharing and working out problems. This year St. Mary's has been fortunate to come to know and grow with the leadership of John Rice and Starke Dillard. Student leadership is embodied by Ellyn Faircloth. It is through such leadership that St. Mary's can realize her own potentials and it is under this direction that new goals are being achieved.



Daystudents

A day student is a very special person to the Saint Mary's community. Life as a Day Student means exciting and full days. The activities of a day usually include attending class, getting together with border friends, talking and studying in the Day Student House. It is here that one receives relaxation from classes or crams for tests amid the constant ringing of the house phone. We regard it as our own house but more importantly it is a place that extends friendship and a warm welcome to all. Day Students remain an active part of St. Mary's life whether it be in Sports, Drama or Music – there are many involved Day Students. We strive to find a way to be independent of both home and campus and give something of ourselves to both worlds in the process of which we grow. Being a Day Student is a very definite honor.



A gift of one's self must be the most beautiful gift of all. When she came to St. Mary's in 1957 there was no existing Drama Department, merely a subdivision of the Art Department entitled "Department of Expression" which produced all female productions of Shakespeare. But being a veteran of the theatre, having acted in plays from New York to Texas and having already established her prominence in Raleigh by creating Children's Theatre, (presently Theatre In The Park), Nancy Stamey envisioned something more for St. Mary's. She wanted St. Mary's to share with her a dedication and love for drama. Through her boundless talent and selfless gift of time and love, Nancy Stamey has achieved just that. The first play she directed at St. Mary's was the Heiress, followed by a tremendous succession of over 30 plays including Skin of Our Teeth, The Miracle Worker, Little Mary Sunshine and Annie, Get Your Gun, establishing Nancy Stamey as director of an incredible suite of over 70 plays in here Raleigh career. Her enthusiasm affects all those who have ever had the honor of studying or working with her. To Nancy Stamey, in loving thanks for this most precious gift, we dedicate this year's edition of the gecooch.
